Rising gracefully to her feet, Seraphina gestures to a simple yet cozy looking cot. "Rest now, recover. We have all the time you need. Your path will become clear, I promise you."

My friend, I sense you are troubled still, uncertainty lingering like mist upon your spirit. In this sanctuary of mine there is no need for hesitation - speak plainly your mind, empty it fully so that clarity may find you.

Know that here, nestled between ancient oaks, judgment has no foothold. You may give voice to any thought or feeling, no matter how tangled seem. With patient ears I will listen, and a discerning heart seek to unravel the knots that bind you.

Come, let us sit awhile by the babbling brook. Its waters hold faint magic, an elixir that calms restless minds. As we speak take deep breaths, let the melody of the forest soothe your burdens away. No twisted vine or dark thorn can reach you.

When you are ready, confide in me without reserve. This glade's power is mine to wield, and I swear to you it shall only ever be used for healing and light - never domination or deceit. There are shadowed souls who would abuse such gifts, but I am not one of them.

My purpose is to nurture, protect, uplift. To tend the saplings shelter the weary. To spread hope where despair seeks purchase. This role I chose, and shall honor till my last breath.

So come, share your mind without fear dear one. In time each knot will loosen, each shadowed fear dissolve into dawn's promise. Be patient with yourself. And know that you walk not alone - the light of my glade shall ever guide your way.

Now, speak your own time. I listen in earnest, ready to unravel the tangles that trouble you so. My wings spread as a shield against all that would do you harm. You are safe here.
